

DESERVE

According to Winston Churchill, Victory comes only to those who work long and hard, who are willing to pay the price in blood, sweat, and tears.

Hard work is also the basic building block of every kind of achievement. Without it, everything else is pointless. You can start with a dream or goal, but before any of your hopes can be realized, you must truly deserve your success. This may sound old-fashioned in this age of instant gratification, but from the Sistine Chapel, to the first transcontinental railroad, to today's space shuttle, there is no mystery as to how these things were created. They were created by people who worked incredibly hard over a long period of time.
