

Isaac Valenzuela

Sixth Grade, Adams Elementary School

Student of the Month

February 2014

Isaac is always well-prepared, ready to participate, open to new ideas and eager to learn.

In math, Isaac shares his knowledge and listens to others' input. In writing, he grasps new concepts quickly and uses them to enhance his work. In reading, Isaac is focused and enthusiastic. He also loves to read independently at home.

Isaac's participation in class discussions adds an interesting and logical perspective to the conversation.

He truly reflects what it means to be a team player. When classmates need help, Isaac lends a hand and keeps the interaction on task.

Isaac is respectful, responsible, calm and kind. He leads by example — in academic achievement, citizenship and character.

Congratulations, Isaac. We are pleased to honor you as a Mesa Public Schools Student of the Month.
