

Salvador Verdugo

Eighth Grade, Taylor Junior High School

Student of the Month

February 2014

Salvador is an excellent and well-rounded student, a natural leader and a wonderful role model.

Salvador willingly helps his schoolmates, as a tutor and a friend. As an independent thinker, Salvador prefers to avoid the popular route, if it is not the wise way to go.

Salvador is a longtime music student. He serves on the Orchestra Leadership Council and appears in school plays. We look forward to seeing him in "Fame," Taylor's spring musical.

Salvador also participates in the Advancement Via Individual Determination college-prep program, and he is president of the AVID Club.

In addition to college, Salvador aspires to a career in the performing arts or in medicine.

Congratulations, Salvador. We are pleased to honor you as a Mesa Public Schools Student of the Month.
