

Arisaid Gonzalez Porras

Senior, Skyline High School

Student of the Month

February 2017

Arisaid is the quintessence of what a Coyote should be: well-rounded, committed to learning, and full of grit and determination.

Arisaid has embraced every opportunity to prepare herself for college and career. Over the last four years, she has been dedicated to serving the community in various clubs and organizations. She has accumulated hundreds of service hours individually and through her work with clubs such as Skyline Paw Pals, National Honor Society and Key Club.

Arisaid enrolls in Skyline's most rigorous courses. Her academic endeavors have garnered opportunities and important recognition. She's a multi-award-winning student with a bright future.

How does Arisaid accomplish so much? According to teacher Marta Connally, "It's her commitment to herself and to learning – to be the best she can be now and in the future." She is a shining example of Skyline's motto, "Creating a legacy of excellence."

Congratulations, Arisaid. We are pleased to honor you as a Mesa Public Schools Student of the Month.
