

Dulce Ivon Hurtado Gonzalez

Fifth grade, Irving Elementary School

Student of the Month

February 2017

Dulce is a true Irving Iguana. She can always be counted on to do the right thing.

Dulce puts forth tremendous effort to meet high levels of achievement. She is prepared and eager to learn. She regularly participates in class by asking questions to gain a deeper understanding of the concept.

Dulce is well-liked for her kind heart and sparkling personality. Her friends and peers know they can rely on her. In group discussions, she answers classmates' questions thoroughly and kindly. One student says, "Dulce encourages me to persevere and never give up, even when things are challenging."

Dulce's teachers adore her. Her fifth-grade teacher says, "Dulce inspires me on a daily basis to be my best. I see the effort she puts in to everything she does. I make it my goal to do the same."

Congratulations, Dulce. We are pleased to honor you as a Mesa Public Schools Student of the Month.
