

PURPOSE:

Morning Star Leadership Foundation, INC (MSLF) is organized to establish, operate and conduct affairs of a non-profit Native American Youth Leadership support organization, with the intent to encourage, educate, and provide direct support to Native American youth through educational, cultural and social development opportunities.

Our organization is cultivating urban tribal youth by blending personal, professional and tribal leadership concepts. Youth and young adults are the leaders of today with our consistent support; we are shaping and strengthening our spirits with endless possibilities.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Rural & Urban Tribal Youth. While Morning Star Leadership Foundation, INC continues to emerge, our organization is inviting the support of committed volunteers, professionals and Tribal Leaders to support our youth with endless educational experiences. Feel free to email your suggestions, ideas and comments for our Advisory Committee review.
