This form can be used to give Mesa Unified School District #4 the information required by Revised Arizona Statute 12-821.01 of a claim against the School District and its employees. That statute requires that certain information must be provided and that if it is not provided within 180 days after a claim accrues, the claim is barred and no action can be taken against the School District or its employees. The School District and its employees are not waiving or precluded from asserting that a claim is barred by, without limitation, the School District or its representatives providing this form for giving notice of a claim, acknowledging receipt of a submitted claim, providing information in connection with a claim, investigating a claim and/or engaging in the negotiation of a possible settlement of all or a portion of a claim.
