SPECTATOR CODE OF ETHICS

Expectations of Spectator Behavior at Athletic Events (Home & Away)

Spectators play a vital role in an athletic contest. The language, behavior, and respect of the event and its participants in a positive manner are expected at all times. We want our opponents to respect Red Mountain athletes, coaches, and fans.

ALL SPECTATORS ARE EXPECTED TO:

1. Understand that Red Mountain will charge at athletic events;
2. Respect that Red Mountain campus is a no smoking facility. No smoking is allowed anywhere on our campus;
3. Provide positive cheering and appropriate behavior in support of (1) Red Mountain’s athletes, coaches, fans, (2) the opponent’s athletes, coaches, fans, and (3) AIA officials;
4. To cooperate with and support the Spiritline;
5. If you observe someone using inappropriate behavior or language, ask them to stop;
6. Do not heckle or demean opponents or their fans;
7. Do not heckle or demean officials;
8. Be humble in victory and gracious in defeat.

THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS WILL RESULT IN REMOVAL FROM THE EVENT AND/OR FACILITY AND MAY LEAD TO RESTRICTIONS FROM ATTENDANCE AT FUTURE EVENTS:

1. Disrespect of the home team, home fans, or opposing athletes, coaches, and fans;
2. Disrespect of the officials, security or those administering the game;
3. Abuse school property;
4. Use of profane language, obscene gestures, or similar inappropriate behavior;
5. Actions which may be a potential hazard to the health, safety, or overall well-being of fans and/or participants;
6. Any action determined inappropriate by security or administration.
