

Key Elements of PBIS

- Define, teach and acknowledge positive behaviors
- On-going data collection and use of data for decision making regarding implementation of systems that support effective practices
- Continuum of universal supports, targeted interventions, and individualized supports
- Implement evidence-based behavioral practices with fidelity and accountability
- Arrange the environment to prevent the development and occurrence of problem behavior (this means changing OUR behaviors)
- Screen universally and monitor student performance and progress continually